

IOSH Managing Safely

Overview

Managing Safely is a practical programme, full of step-by-step guidance to managing health and safety in the workplace. It is a sophisticated, jargon-free presentation, which has a sharp business focus. Its highly innovative format and practical content not only engages and inspires delegates, but is easy for them to relate to, which is critical whenever essential health and safety messages are being communicated.

Objective

To provide anyone who has management or supervisory responsibility for others with the essential tools, knowledge and confidence they need to effectively discharge their responsibilities in their place of work.

Duration 4/5 days (The programme can be arranged to suit the needs of your business)

Who should attend?

This course is for managers and supervisors in any sector, and any organisation. It's designed to get managers up to speed on the practical actions they need to take to handle health and safety in their workplace. It will give them the knowledge and tools to tackle the health and safety issues they're responsible for and, in doing so, will highlight just why health and safety is such an essential part of their job.
